 FACULTY OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND MEDICINE

The University of Luxembourg will open its laboratories on Kirchberg and Limpertsberg campus sites on Sunday 19 September 2021 from 10:00 to 18:00.

All day long, you will have the opportunity to explore scientific research, watch amazing experiences and impressive demos, exchange with top-level researchers and students.

On Kirchberg campus, you will be able to play with drones, discover 3D printing, interact with robots, understand water treatment, learn more about renewable energy production, “walk on the Moon” and explore the space labs.

On Limpertsberg campus, you will be able to build a hand spectroscope, understand how a train can levitate, how colors can arise from structure and be used to sense mechanical deformation, play a simple role game mediated by an “Artificial Intelligence” machine made of boxes and dominoes and many other activities.

Enjoy an unforgettable experience and become a researcher for a day!
